Prologue

The Sky-Dogs sat around the clearing. "No More Peace," A golden dog said.

"NO MORE PEACE?" A small grey pup blurted out. "How?"

"It's a prophecy, Jay-Jay," The golden dog replied. "We are thinking that it might mean a dog will not bring any peace."

"I can't I can't see!" A huge cry called as two young Fierce Dogs watched a black and white dog get killed by one of the other Fierce Dogs.
"Hm, what do you think? Enough injuries for that dog? Finishing bite?" The first Fierce Dog asked. The second Fierce Dog smiled.
"A fast death would be to kind," The second Fierce Dog said, "we should let it suffer. It can't see, it will get taken by surprise." The first Fierce Dog nodded her head. "Yes, Alpha," the first dog said.
The second Fierce Dog who happened to be the Alpha, jumped off the ledge of the trash can and padded toward the dying dog. "Ready to have more pain?" He asked. There was no answer the dog could control the Alpha.
"NO!" The injured dog barked as he tried to lift his head and open his bleeding eyes but his head fell back. "Just finish me off! Finish me off!"
The Fierce Dog Alpha never heard such a bark from a dying dog. There is too much pain for him! Good, He thought, smiling. He walked up to the dying dog, bared his teeth in a growl and bit the dying dog's neck. Hard. With a. Howl of pain, the dog died.
"And that's how we do the killing!" The Alpha barked. "Fierce Dogs, retreat to camp!" The Fierce Dog Pack followed the Alpha dog towards the camp made of an abandoned food house.

"Fierce Dogs!" The Alpha called as the Fierce Dogs' heads shot up.
"We need a plan to lure some other dogs to us!"
All the Pack howled in agreement.
"Cannon, search the terrain and the edge of the forest for intruders. StarBreak, team up with Cannon. Burst, team up with Cannon and StarBrea--" A tiny voice cut Alpha off.
"What will I do?" A small Fierce Dog pup asked. The Alpha smiled.
"Keep watch on the camp with the young," The Alpha said.

After Alpha barked all the orders, they all set off to do their jobs. When the Fierce Dogs attack, they never stop, that is called the Trial of Rage. Fierce Dogs don't care if a valuable pack member dies unless it's the leader. It was the duties they live with. They kill with no sadness, no sorrow, no shame. They spill others blood until the dog dies to the death. It's the ways they live by forever, until they come to the Earth-Dog's mouth. If there is no worthy or care, they would be a loyal killer forever until the end. No care! Their cheer, song, is: never care for others death, never care. Care for the Trial of Rage which will guide us to killing, love only blood and death, hate peace. We are the Fierce Dogs, no one can defeat us, we are the Fierce Dogs, nothing to care about, we are the Fierce Dogs who use the Rage! The Trial of Rage for life!
